Networking & Research

Attendees have this once-a-year opportunity to connect with over 200 companies and 900 industry experts to discuss new trends, products and services. Lunch is free to all registered attendees both days, providing a perfect peer networking opportunity as well! The Expo Grand Opening begins at 12:00 noon Tuesday, with the Expo closing at 3:00pm Wednesday.

Learn What Other Agencies Are Doing - Best of the Best Awards Showcase

Award winners display and discuss their 2022 award winning projects! The California Park & Recreation Society's Awards Program recognizes the outstanding achievements of agencies and individuals in the areas of community improvements and programming, facility design and park planning, marketing and communication, and professional and citizen leadership.

University/Innovation Row

Network with university faculty and students. Discuss projects that you are interested in and find out how your local university might be able to help or share research that is already available. Information about bachelor's and master's degree programs in parks, recreation, and tourism will also be available from a variety of universities. Faculty and students will be on hand during Expo Hall hours.

Silent Auction

Bid on fabulous items at participating vendor booths throughout the Expo. All proceeds support the California Foundation for Parks & Recreation Scholarship Fund. Auction items must be claimed by 11:00am on Thursday at the conference registration counter.

Prize Drawings

Held both Tuesday and Wednesday, these are "Must Be Present to Win" activities! Cash drawings will take place both Tuesday and Wednesday during dedicated viewing times in the Expo. The Grand Prize drawing occurs Wednesday prior to the exhibit hall closing at 3:00pm. Only registered attendees may participate.

This year you can preview research studies, chat with the researchers, and hear a quick summary by visiting the University/Innovation Row area of the Expo Hall.

General Sessions

Tuesday Opening General Session

Building Skyscraper Relationships

Charles Clark

9:00am - 10:30am

Help us kick off the conference with our highly anticipated Opening General Session! This fun and engaging opening session will include our state board installment and more exciting announcements. Then hear from Charles Clark who has pivoted from becoming one of the fastest men in the world to building an international speaking business that teaches people how to use adversity to build greater strength, success and fulfillment. In this highly engaging and energetic keynote session, you will learn how to unlock the power of relationships in your agencies and communities to drive results, improve the experiences you build and create a lasting legacy.

While the principles learned can be applied to both personal and professional relationships, you will leave this session ready to lead your team to greatness. Attendees will walk away feeling ready to set up powerful relationships, will gain a deepened understanding of the 4 levels of relationships that humans desire, and be left inspired to break down that biggest barrier in the way of creating legacy and momentum in your agency.

Wednesday General Session

Handling Challenging Conversations with a Polarized Public

Steven Dinkin, National Conflict Resolution Center

9:00 - 10:30am

It seems society is more divided than ever, and that tumult presents itself in our daily lives. As park and recreation professionals, there is often an expectation to “keep the peace”, even while dealing with difficult personalities. Sometimes, people who feel wronged are intent on venting their anger and directing it towards staff, whether or not staff had any control over the outcome.

This keynote, presented by the President of the National Conflict Resolution Center, will help you see beyond the complaint to the underlying need of the person, recognize the importance of solving problems with members of the public and show how to respectfully respond to the emotions of others to achieve better outcomes.

CPRS Awards Program Winners Announced!

Thursday Closing Keynote

Living B@ldly

Michelle Faraco

11:30am - 12:30pm

This talk will leave you wanting to take action in becoming and showing up as your most authentic self, leaving you with actionable tools to put into practice in order to accept yourselves and show up in the world as your MOST authentic self.

Michelle Faraco's inspiring and powerful personal story of how her entire life changed when she accepted herself will show you how showing up as your TRUE self is the answer to tap into your full potential. In this vulnerable, fun, and energizing session, you'll learn about how to challenge society's standards, the importance of developing empathy and embracing diversity and how to shine through your own authenticity.

Membership is for one year from the date dues are received. 14% of your membership dues goes towards a subscription to the California Parks & Recreation magazine and members may not deduct subscription price from dues. CPRS dues are not deductible as a charitable contribution for U.S. federal income tax purposes, but may be deductible as a business expense. CPRS estimates that 14.85% of your dues are not deductible because of CPRS lobbying activities on behalf of its members.
