The 2020 ASAM Review Course & ABPM Exam

June 18 – June 20, 2020
Hilton Anatole Hotel | Dallas, TX

Course Overview

Educational Purpose

The ASAM Review Course has a major impact on helping physicians prepare for the addiction medicine exam and increasing attendees' knowledge on substance use disorders. The ASAM Review Course is widely recognized as the essential primer for physicians and other healthcare professionals who are preparing for a career in addiction medicine. This two-and-a-half-day course is mapped to the addiction medicine exam blueprint and features outstanding faculty.

Learning Objectives

Upon completion, participants should be able to:

- Demonstrate practical knowledge the neurobiology of addiction and articulate its activity in terms useful in a clinical setting
- Describe the effects of alcohol, tobacco and other drugs in both tolerant and non-tolerant individuals, and considerations for special populations
- Describe the process for diagnosing addiction and differentiating the symptoms of addiction from those of other medical or psychiatric disorders
- Explain the various pharmacologic and psychosocial treatments for addictive disorders, and describe the factors that should be considered in selecting a treatment modality to match a patient's needs
- Describe the precipitants of relapse and current evidence-based practices to prevent and manage relapse

ABPM Exam Information

ABPM Eligibility for ABMS Addiction Medicine Subspecialty

Beginning October 2017 through October 2021, physicians who have a primary American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS) board (including current addiction medicine specialists with a primary ABMS board certification) may apply to take the exam and become or continue to be an addiction medicine specialist. To find out if you're eligible, visit: <https://www.TheABPM.org/am-i-eligible>

After the five-year period ends, a one-year, ACGME-accredited fellowship will be required to become an addiction medicine specialist.

ABPM Exam Applications Accepted March 16 - June 30, 2020

Physicians interested in taking the exam and becoming certified in addiction medicine need to complete the application on the ABPM website. The application period for the exam will be March 16 - June 30, 2020. Applicants will be notified of approval electronically by ABPM.

ABPM Exam Administration

A variety of exam dates and locations will be offered from October 12, 2020 through November 1, 2020. Approved applicants will have the opportunity to select their exam location and date upon approval notification.

To learn more about the addiction medicine specialty and the exam visit: www.TheABPM.org.
